Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Personal Specifications: Motor Transport Corps Personnel Specifications for enlisted men of the Motor Transport Corps are herewith issued. It will be noticed that Personnel Specifications include the Army title, the authorization of the various grades according to the Tables of Organization, the corresponding civilian occupation, the degree of skill at the occupation and the occupational symbol (used in the classification of all enlisted men) which are commonly found in the Tables of Occupational Needs for various branches and corps of the service heretofore published. In addition, Personnel Specifications include a suggested substitute for the civilian occupations and a description of the duties of each grade. Several limitations to the complete, intelligent use of any sort of tables of occupational organization of Army units have created the necessity for tables where the duties of various grades are specified. The Tables of Occupational Needs prescribe the trade specialists required to organize and maintain the organization of well-balanced units. The personnel office in preparing a requisition for men for the organization which is forming can from the Tables of Occupational Needs alone get the material for the telegram requisitioning these men. But in making an assignment of the men provided to fill the requisition more than the bare terms of the civilian occupation required must be taken into account if the assignment is to remain permanent. For two sergeants, both to be drawn from the same occupation, one to function as a radio sergeant, heavy artillery, and the other as a sergeant, first class, Air Service, the personnel officer would make no choice between two wireless operators, but would indiscriminately send one to the regiment of heavy artillery...
