People often called her an old soul when she was a child. From an early age, she questioned the ways of the world and didn't quite understand the preconditioned realm she was born into. Natalie had many experiences as a child and young adult that developed and shaped the woman she is today. Sleeping to Awake is a collection of life experiences and invaluable lessons learned. Natalie illustrates many different versions and realities of herself throughout her lifetime. Her stories have had her look within, question herself, and evolved her to a higher level. These are the circumstances and situations that made her flourish, nurture and forgive herself. Her life has had her realize that we are all human and all on our own specific journeys toward understanding and progress. Sleeping to Awake is meant to inspire love, understanding, and awareness for the world...
