Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution: For the Year Ending June 30, 1914 To the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution: Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit herewith a report on the operations of the Smithsonian Institution and its branches during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, including work placed by Congress under the direction of the Board of Regents in the United States National Museum, the Bureau of American Ethnology, the International Exchanges, the National Zoological Park, the Astrophysical Observatory, and the United States Bureau of the International Catalogue of Scientific Literature. The general report reviews the affairs of the Institution proper and briefly summarizes the operations of its several branches, while the appendices contain detailed reports by the assistant secretary and others directly in charge of various activities. The reports on operations of the National Museum and the Bureau of American Ethnology will also be published as independent volumes. The Smithsonian Institution. The Establishment. The Smithsonian Institution was created an establishment by act of Congress approved August 10, 1846. Its statutory members are the President of the United States, the Vice President, the Chief Justice, and the heads of the executive departments. The Board Of Regents. The Board of Regents consists of the Vice President and the Chief Justice of the United States as ex officio members, three Members of the Senate, three Members of the House of Representatives, and six citizens, two of whom shall be resident in the city of Washington, and the other four shall be inhabitants of some State, but no two of them of the same State.
