Leaving China: An Artist Paints His World War II Childhood

By James McMullan

Algonquin Books (division of Workman). Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Leaving China: An Artist Paints His World War II Childhood, James McMullan, A memoir in paintings and words by internationally acclaimed illustrator, author, and teacher James McMullan. A "Booklist" Top 10 Biography for Youth" It is this dreamlike quality of my memories that I wanted to capture in some way in the paintings that accompany the text--to suggest in the images that the events occurred a long time ago in a simpler yet more exotic world, and that the players in that world, including me, are at a distance. " Artist James McMullan s work has appeared in the pages of virtually every American magazine, on the posters for more than seventy Lincoln Center theater productions, and in bestselling picture books. Now, in a unique memoir comprising more than fifty short essays and illustrations, the artist explores how his early childhood in China and wartime journeys with his mother influenced his whole life, especially his painting and illustration. James McMullan was born in Tsingtao, North China, in 1934, the grandson of missionaries who settled there. As a little boy, Jim took for granted a privileged life of household servants,...
