Val D Or, United States, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Blood Royale provides the true and verifiable story behind what has been purposely concealed for well over a millennium. Those that committed murder, intrigue in the name of being righteous men supposedly professing the love and guidance of God, left behind a convoluted and sordid trail of despicable and horrible crimes. It is the tragic story of the Catholic Church s desperate attempts by successive pontiffs to harness the descendants of one particular bloodline, which they deemed necessary to fuel their own despotic ambitions to control the throne of the Frankish Kingdom. Blood Royale exposes the loss of innocence by this one family as it reveals the terrible episodes of their deliverance into the hands of absolute evil. In an insane world, corrupted by superstition and fanaticism; where sinner becomes saint; and where religious indulgence is synonymous with being a heretic, there is only one fight and that is to survive. But worse of all, the sword which cut the deepest was one called love and through its sharp edge they were all condemned To date, many authors have touched upon the inexplicable occurrences of Southern France s mysterious history. Furtive attempts involving the search for the Holy Grail, claims of long-lost descendants of Jesus Christ, but all these are merely fanciful leaps of the imagination. Blood Royale proves through its alignment and connection of the facts that which has always been said, Truth is stranger than Fiction.
