Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, grade: 1, 3, University of Hamburg (Institut für Anglistik), course: Alternate Worlds: Utopian and Counterfactual English Fiction from the late 19th Century to the 1990s, language: English, abstract: 1. Introduction (. . .) Island is a novel of ideas, light on the novel-part and heavy on the ideas. In fact it could also be seen as an essay with a bit of a plot entangled around it. The plot in any case is secondary and easy to summarize: The English journalist Will Farnaby is stranded on the island of Pala and is on the secret mission to negotiate a contract for oil. Injured in the beginning, he leads long conversations with some inhabitants through which he learns about the Palanese way of life. As he takes pleasure in their virtues and beliefs, he gives up his initial oil plans. Nevertheless, in the end Pala gets invaded by the neighbour island Rendang. The emphasis in Island lies in the long conversations that Will leads in which he learns about the...
