Tantor Media, Inc, United States, 2010. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged edition. Language: English . Brand New. A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur s Court is both a whimsical fantasy and a social satire chock-full of brilliant Twainisms. Hank Morgan, a nineteenth-century American-a Connecticut Yankee-by a stroke of fate is sent back into time to sixth-century England and ends up in Camelot and King Arthur s Court. Although of average intelligence, he finds himself with knowledge beyond any of those in the sixth century, and he uses it to become the king s right hand man and to challenge Merlin as the court magician. Astounded at the way of life in Camelot, Hank does the only thing he can think of to do: change them. In his attempt to civilize medieval Camelot, he experiences many challenges and misadventures.
