And I think junior high is as appropriate as high school. SBORNE Mr. O. The reason I mention that is that there are some who are even suggesting as low as 3rd or 4th grade, at least with some materials, because that is when people start shaping their thoughts about substance abuse. And of course, underage drinking on average, I think, starts at about 12. 7 years of age. OOLEY Ms. H. Right. Mr. O. And of course, lots of people when they are high SBORNE on something else will take meth when somebody says, well, here, try this, you know, this will make you really feel good. They do not even know what it is. OOLEY Ms. H. Well, I think a documentary that students make can also be used as one of the many tools they would use in grade school, in 4th and 5th and 6th grades as well. So I mean, I think that could be part of a curriculum. Again, as you said, younger and younger students are using drugs and alcohol. And I mean, I think the numbers are pretty - as far as how young kids are starting to use some kind of sub-stance abuse. SBORNE Mr. O. All right. Well, I do not want to take more time at this point. I just want to thank you for your testimony and thank you for coming. And at this point - oh, I see our other witness, Mr. Souder, is here. So we probably should at...
