Guernica Editions, Canada, Canada, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Last Woman, a selection from twenty years of poetry, is a voyage into being and living, into the country where a woman reveals herself without fear. This lyricism of survival emerges directly from an intimacy of words spoken by one in search of roots, loving, and spirituality. French critic, Jean-Pierre Faye, says: Claudine Bertrand stands between Gaston Miron and Tristan Tzara: a Quebec poet who invents her own new language. This selection includes poems from La derni?re femme (1991), L amoureuse int?rieure (1997), Tomber du jour (1999), Le corps en t?te (2001), and Jardin des Vertiges (2002).
