Reviews

This book will never be easy to start on looking at but quite entertaining to read. It is actually packed with wisdom and knowledge It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 26 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : U. S. Dept. of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, 1997 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)37188669 Subject: Abused children -- Wounds and injuries -- United States. Excerpt: . . . are exploring. You may think the sink is too high for access by the child, but a determined child may have climbed from a step stool, to the toilet seat, to a hamper, and then the sink. Accurate measurements of the items involved in the incident - tub, basin, stove height, height to object, etc. - are essential. Photographs of these items should document the size and shape of the item and should contain a measure scale. Always use color 35mm film for photographs. It will give you maximum clarity and detail and is best suited for making enlargements for court evidence. Instant cameras are acceptable but do not give the same clarity and produce photographs less suitable for enlargements. All body parts should be photographed. Photographs should include a standard front, standard back, standard left, and standard right. The significantly burned areas should be particularly well photographed. Reliable testimony, however, should not be based solely on photographs or drawings. Testimony from the treating physician or medical personnel who conducted a hands-on evaluation of the child is critical and more effective. Working With Other Agencies Fire and rescue teams are usually the first responders to a 911 call for a burn victim. Their observations of the scene and their communication tapes verifying the response time provide valuable information. Another important agency is the Department of Social Services. It is advisable to work closely with the child protection services team, for their cooperation can result in evidence...
