Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lyrics of the Southland Lyrics of the Southland If You Were A Rose. If women all were roses, dear, And bloomed from June till May, I d pluck and keep you for my own, Forever and a day. In my heart s album I would place Your petals sweet and rare, And shelter safely from life s storms Your form so frail and fair. I d watch and guard you zealously Against cold blasts unseen, And on my throne of purest love I d have you reign as queen. And when your beauty faded, dear, I d brighten it with love, For value I your love, sweetheart, Next to the things above.
