Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Investigation of the Fur-Seal and Other Fisheries of Alaska: Report From the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries of the House of Representative It is farther shown by the testimony before the committee that on their return to the islands, after their temporary absence during the winter, these animals generally select the locations on the rookeries which they had formerly occupied. It appears, too, that all the Alaskan fur seals are born on these islands; that they are distinct animals, and have none of the characteristics of fish, and will drown in the water until they are taught to swim by their elders. In former years fur seals were found in great numbers on various islands of the South Pacific Ocean; but after a comparatively short period of indiscriminate slaughter the rookeries were deserted, the animals having been killed or driven from their haunts; so that now the only existing rookeries are those in Alaska, another in the Russian part of Bering Sea. and a third on Lobos Island, at the mouth of the river...
