The world's first celebrity sex reporter, The Tinseltown Temptress, finds navigating the private lives of Hollywood's elite more treacherous than titillating. Cassie rallies her seductive forces in time to persuade her editor, Mr. Wilcox to rehire her at TFP, but her troubles are far from over. How lucky can one girl get? Run-ins with her ex, random drummers, (Scandinavian film star and general loon) MH, and even a gun-wielding psycho threaten to derail Cassie's hunt for professional grade, celebrity level, sexual fulfillment. Her articles as the Tinseltown Temptress have become more popular than ever, costing her friends, privacy, and peace of mind. And while her notoriety affords her a certain measure of job security, it also makes keeping her secret involvement in the whole scandalous business harder than ever. Between locating her thieving mother and defending her home from interlopers, both foreign and domestic, Cassie is in over her head. Add in the constant pressures of finding suitable film stars to screw and bestie Matt breathing down her neck for his investment capital, and it's plain why the woman feels so swamped. Clinging to the loose threads of all the lies, Cassie tries to stay afloat while blazing a torpid trail through the ranks of Hollywood's finest in search of her happy ending. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
