Y.; Sunday Morning, April 16th, 1865, and Again, by Request, the Following Wednesday Evening That your faith and hope might be in God. - 1 Pet., 1, 21. We are one with the millions who, having partaken of a common joy, this day partake of a common grief. The nations heart is throbbing through our hearts. The past week has come and gone like a wondrous dream, yet a momentous reality. What other ever brought such vicissitudes, what other will have left such inefaceable memories? No sooner had the last Lord s day passed with us quietly, though pleasantly stirred as by ripples of the wave of joy that had just rolled over the land with the tidings of victory from Richmond and Peters burg, than Monday brought another and higher surge of joy from the surrender of the chief rebel army; and so the week began with the ringing of bells, and roar of cannon,....
