

A Princess Kara Caetsie Cats Adventure: The Neverland (Paperback)

By Jon Degnan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Peter, where we come from, my sister and I. There is no Neverland. There is no second star to the right, no fairies; In our where and when you are a fairy tale, a story; In our world, every little boy and girl has to grow up. - Princess Kara It had been a full month to the day since Kara and her little sister Caetlin entered the magical chest with their feline companion Twilight. The chest in the attic was a doorway to other times and places, some that exist within our own reality and others that do not. Kara had adorned a magical tiara once owned by a young Persian Princess who lived in Shiraz during the Safavid Dynasty of 1509. Caetlin wore a head band with a pair of faux cat ears which Twilight advised once belonged to him, until he got his new ears when he became guardian of the chest. Excited for a brand new adventure the girls leave early one morning, but something is wrong, the chest won't open and Twilight is stuck on...
