Excerpt: . . . reward, God useth to give abundantly of his grace, to those that walk most faithfully with him. He will shew most love to those that most love him. He will be nearest to them that most desirously draw nigh to him; while he forsaketh those that forsake him, and turneth away from those that turn away from him. The hand of our God is for good upon all them that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. (2 Chronrxv. 2; Prov. i. 32; Ezra viii. 22. ) Thus it is apparent in all these evidences, that walking with God, is not only a discovery of the goodness that men have, but the only way to increase their grace, and make them better. O what a sweet humility, and seriousness, and spirituality appeareth in the conference, or conversation, or both, of those that newly come from a believing, close converse with God! When they that come from men and books, may have but a common mind or life. And those that come from the business and pleasure of the world and flesh, and from the company of foolish, riotous gallants, may come defiled, as the swine out of the mire! V. Lastly to walk with God, -is the best preparation for times of suffering, and for the day of death. As we must be judged according to what we have done in the body; so the nearer...
