

At a Distance: There Is No Distance: Observation Stops Time (Paperback)

By Ilexa Yardley

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The line is always diameter of circle, therefore, God is light. Pi is circumference. Light is not moving (so everything else can appear to move). Absolute zero is perpetual motion meaning no horizon (infinite horizon, vanishing point). One is equal to zero (and one is also not equal to zero) because half-circumference (circumference) is always the diameter of a circle. Thus light stops time. Light is time. Light stops movement. Light forces movement. Duplication is negation is the conservation of a line, diameter of a circle.
