Excerpt: .crooked, and contained more sawyers or floating timber than we have seen in the same space since leaving the Platte. Our game consisted of deer, beaver, and elk: we also killed a brown bear, which, although shot through the heart, ran at their usual pace nearly a quarter of a mile before he fell. On the 20th they reached the mouth of a large river on the south, and encamped for the day at the upper point of its junction with the Missouri. This stream, says the Journal, which we suppose to be that called by the Minnetarees the Muscleshell River, empties into the Missouri two thousand two hundred and seventy miles above the mouth of the latter river, and in latitude 47 24 north. It is one hundred and ten yards wide, and contains more water than streams of that size usually do...
