Excerpt from Georgie: Story VI of Rollo at Work, or the Way to Be Industrious A short distance from where Rollo lives, there is a small, but very pleasant house, just under the hill, Where you go down to the stone bridge leading over the brook. There is a noble large apple tree on one side of the house, which bears a beautiful, sweet, and mellow kind of apple, called golden pippins. A great many other trees and flowers are around the house, and in the little garden on the side of it towards the brook. There is a small White gate that leads to the house, from the road; and there is a pleasant path leading right out from the front door, through the garden, down to the water. This is the house that Georgie lives in. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
