Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.WE TRUST we are not laying ourself open to misconception when we describe Margot Asquith s daughter, the Princess A. Bibesco, as a chip off the old block for so we gather from a perusal of her volume of stories called "I Have Only Myself to Blame." Mamma Margot, you will recall, recently threw all the small town spinsters into a flurry of haste to get her shocking memoirs from the public Library. We notice it is still one of the six "non-fiction" books most in demand. (We were never quite certain about classing it as "non-fiction.") Now follows the daughter, who is the wife of the Roumanian Minister to these United States, with a collection of tales that other daughters should not permit their mothers to read without first explaining Things to them, for mothers are usually ignorant of the Facts of Life; and that the virginal sparrows who hop so eagerly over the lintels of New England public libraries looking for intellectual crumbs will probably read with delicious horror and profound misunderstanding. For...
