

How to Deal with Yo Baby Daddy: A Woman s Guide to Effective Co-Parenting and Preservation of Self (Paperback)

By Mrs Tahera Rene Christy

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It is an unnatural process to separate from the father of your children. Because it is not defined by nature, it is a difficult concept to truly understand. No one wants to be a Baby Mama. When a woman gives of herself to a man sexually, there is always an expectation. In a one-night stand, there is an expectation of fun. In a long term romantic relationship, there is an expectation of trust. In a marriage, there is the expectation of the marriage lasting forever. No matter how a woman becomes a Baby Mama, she shares the understanding that she has been let down, bamboozled, disappointed and robbed of her life s plan and vision for her Baby Daddy s presence in her life. The cards were played, and this is the circumstance. One must deal with the repercussions of the actions played. There are rules to this game of life: The more you play with effective strategy, the better chances you will have to win. You may not win in the conventional standard of winning, but you can triumph through the...
