Gabriel's awakening wasn't supposed to be this way. Instead of amongst her kin, she finds herself with devastating amnesia and a boy with the promise of a new life. But when she begins to lose control, the truth is born from the ashes of an ever-growing darkness. Even with the slightest glimmer of hope that appears when she meets a priest named Father Daniel, and his apprentice, Michael, things worsen, bringing forth the darkness in the form of a painful corruption. Thrown into an internal battle between the Light and the Dark, Gabriel finds that if she can't overcome the corruption, she will fall from Grace and all worlds in existence would go up in the flames of Oblivion. Corruption at its finest. Hell is rising. Angels at their worst. Heaven is collapsing. When Heaven's most powerful Archangel is corrupt, who will save them all?.
