Hamlyn. 1 Paperback(s), 2013. soft. Book Condition: New. The frenzies and frustrations of love sometimes lead to crimes of passion. From the 16th-century court of the Medicis to the 1980 murder of Scarsdale Diet doctor Herman Tarnower, this book collects dozens of true-life stories of jealousy, revenge, and despair, some of which because love is blind and often foolish even contain an element of farce. Tim Healey vividly conveys the historical and social settings of these events and writes with understanding and compassion: "In a frenzy of suspicion and jealousy, Ruth Ellis gunned down her lover, David Blakely, with a .38 at point-blank range. She was the last woman to be hanged in Britain. Her executioner, Albert Pierrepoint, resigned." 192.
