

St. Luke s Hospital Annual Reports, 1954-1955 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By St Luke s Hospital

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from St. Luke s Hospital Annual Reports, 1954-1955 The Clark Building, opened on St. Luke s Day, October 18th, 1954, supplied the badly needed space for a new and modern out-patient Department. Its 34 clinics occupy the first two ?oors of the building and daily render a tremendous service to the Community. In 1955, the first full year of operation, it handled more clinic visits than it had in its old quarters. Equally busy are the diagnostic and therapeutic services on the third ?oor. The laboratories of the Pathology Department on the fourth ?oor and the special laboratories on the Penthouse ?oor now offer opportunities for clinical and pure research the Hospital has never had before. Modern and well-equipped space for patients of services already major in the Hospital, i.e., orthopedic, urological, and pediatric, are housed in the new building. The inauguration of a long-needed psychiatric service was also made possible. The establishment of the Columbia Health Service on the second ?oor of this building and its Infirmary on the ninth ?oor was also a natural and desirable development. It is not...
