Excerpt from Catalogue of the Eighteenth Public Auction Sale of a Splendid Collection of American and English Coins, the Property of Peter Gschwend, Esq. Of Pittsburg, Penna Early Connecticut coins of the mintage of 1787 are represented by two varieties of the excessively rare Granby three pence, issued by John Higley, at Granby. What could be more original than their curious command, Value me as you please? The noted Virginia shilling, with the bust of George III and probably the third known specimen, is a fine proof piece, and Mr. Gschwend regards it the prize of his collection. The Washington series of coins and medals is extensive and contains some great rarities, the most notable being the two Half dollars, one in silver, the other in copper. These bear a bust of Washington. The copper piece, differing from the silver specimen in having an ornamented edge, is almost unique, and may be regarded infinitely more valuable than the one in silver. Crosby knew of but one specimen, that in Fon robert s collection in Europe. Only four...
