Excerpt from Improvement Era, Vol. 13: October, 1910 But what shall we do Shall we quit because there are those with whom we come in contact who are not willing to rise to the standard to which we seek to exalt them N O! Someone has said that the Lord hates a quitter, and there should be no such thing as quitting when we put our hands to the plow to save men, to save souls, to exalt mankind, to inculcate principles of righteousness and establish them in the hearts of those with whom we are associated, both by precept and by example. There must be no such thing as being discouraged. We may fail, over and over again, but if we do, it(is in individual cases. Under, certain conditions and circumstances, we may fail to accomplish the object we have in view with reference to this individual or the other individual, or a number of individuals that we are seeking to benefit, to uplift, to purify, to get into their hearts the principles of just ice, of righteousness, of virtue and of...
