

Blurred Lines

By Dakota Skye

Paperback. Condition: New. LMK Graphics (illustrator). 130 pages. Letting go is like a death. Sierra never thought she would be caught in a love triangle between her writing partner, Alex, and the love of her life, Shane especially because her ex-fianc is now a ghost. Tormented with both guilt for moving on with someone else and a desire to be free of the past, shes pulled between both men. Shane struggles with accepting his death and seeing the woman he loves with someone else. Alex is determined to free Sierra from limbo and change their relationship from casual to serious, but the bond she has with Shane transcends death. One of the three needs to let go. Only the good die young. When Shane Weston is murdered before prosecuting a key member of the Mexican drug cartel, he cant accept the idea that all of the plans he had had for his life will never come true. More than that, he cant let go of the love he has for his fiance. Love never dies. Sierra Daniels is crushed after Shanes death. Head writer on a successful television series, she cant get back into the groove of life. All enthusiasm for...
