It is prudent and farseeing to preserve for future generations a record of such a proceeding. The celebration of two hundred and fifty years of corporate existence is an event not of such frequent occurrence as to be uninteresting, and when its features are felicitous in plan and faultless in execution, there is an especial reason for making the story a part of the records of the town which it chiefly concerns. The committee having in charge the celebration of the Quarter Millennial Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Town of Chelmsford may, therefore, justly feel some satisfaction in presenting their report, which, by the vote of the town, they are to make at the Annual Town Meeting of 1906. There are occasions which, perhaps because of their merit and spirit, seem to be especially favored in their management and meteorological conditions. The celebration...
