Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Scott Starkey and his wife Jennifer were determined after marrying that their household should never grow beyond the two of them - and however many dogs and cats occupied the premises at the time - when, in 2004, a chance encounter with a television program called China s Lost Girls set in motion a series of events that eventually led them to China and a thirteen month old little girl - their precious daughter Hope - in August, 2010. You ve Come a Long Way, Baby: A China Adoption Story is a poignant, heartfelt, and frequently humorous chronicle of one couple s emotional adoption journey, including the decision to adopt, persistence through years of waiting, an anxiety filled two-week adventure in China where they met their little girl for the first time, and the challenges faced along the way. More importantly, it s a unique look at family, and what it really means to make one.
