

My Journey with Justin (Paperback)

By Sheila K Campbell

Sheila Campbell, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Christian Editing Services (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Justin Campbell was an active, out-going, five-year-old boy with red hair and freckles. A scar running the length of his chest was the only indication that this happy little boy had been born with a congenital heart defect. Although he was only five, Justin already had two younger brothers and a little sister on the way. His young parents, Robert and Sheila Campbell, found great pleasure in caring for their growing family. But when Justin was left in a coma with severe brain damage from complications following open-heart surgery, his mother was left struggling to pick up the pieces of their shattered lives. In this poignant story, Sheila recounts her struggle to make sense of the intense heartbreak and hardships that devastated their lives. Follow her in this journey of faith as God uses the handicaps of her young son to open her eyes to the handicaps that lay hidden in her own heart and, in the process, bring happiness and healing to a broken heart.
