Grade Levels 5-6 (Home School and Public) PLOT SUMMARY Beautiful-Town, devastated by a super storm and ravaging flood, becomes the prey of a tyrannical deceiver who attempts to hi-jack the town and seize control of it. Nevertheless, though victimized by deception, the good people of Beautiful-Town, through faith, patience, gratitude, and grace cleverly, overcome the deceptive tyrant and his evil scheme with creative thought and kindness. The Way This Book Will Help Your Children This book promotes, successful self-sufficiency and generation of wealth are more easily, achieved through discovery and fulfillment of natural purpose and development of inherent skills rather than by any, other means. In addition, it brings into focus the advantage of overcoming adversity with creative thought, guided and inspired by the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, it gives hope for the realization of the readers utmost desires and having access to infinite possibilities through faith, patience, and gratitude. After, a brief historical account of the evolution of the setting, the central storyline begins to unfold the plot with a definition of divine purpose and direction toward divine destiny. Furthermore, readers will also discover the moral virtues of approaching life by learning from mistakes, expressing gratitude and kindness, and maintaining the utmost respect for God, other people, and nature. Whether an adult reads this book to children or whenever children read it for themselves, there is an underlying message they can absorb easily and naturally. That message encourages children to find resources they need or desire to solve problems and achieve goals, by looking first, within his and her inner being and trusting Gods design of natural human strength, created in his image. Both juvenile and...
