

Walking the Sojourners Way (Paperback)

By Ngo Ton Long

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Ton Long had to work with a Vietnamese Republic under the Americans, 1959-1975 - both Americans and Vietnamese did desert him on March 31, 1975. Disowned and persecuted, even exterminated by another Vietnamese Republic under the Soviets, he had been in a sense dead and entombed before he was, on 27 March 1986, born again by The Spirit . Easter Sunday, 15 April 1990, the four-year born-again was taken out of his country of origin, aboard a nine-meter long fishing boat escaping over sea overseas. Eventually the stateless escapee had to spend four other Easter seasons studying another religious tradition on an Island of Refuge. Three and half years later, the UNHCR-recognised refugee left Indonesia s Galang Refugee Camp for Australia s Adelaide in the ending of July 1993. And after the twenty-year self-incarceration inside Adelaide, he was brought upon the eagles wings from south-eastern islands of the Old World, across the Pacific Ocean and crossing both the International Timeline and the Equator at a same moment, to north-western lands of the New World (2013). There, in the Spirit he was...
