GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Condition: New. 40 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. Essay from the year 2012 in the subject Psychology - Social Psychology, grade: -, University of Minho (Social Sciences), course: Communication Sciences, language: English, abstract: The aim of this study is to understand the fatiguing relationship between Turkey and European Union which has been lasting for four decades and to come to perceive whether Turkey is a proper candidate or not when examined carefully. There are some debates over Turkish society and its approach to European Union which reinforces Turkey to change in terms of social structures such as policy and economy. This study is also to be prepared in order to explain what has a big impact on Europes viewpoint about Turkey and Turkishness. Moreover, some Turks opposition to European Union is added to the study. When doing this study, it has been read several sources and articles by well-known Turkish authors and teachers as well as foreign researchers who keep an eye on Turkey and EU relations. In light of that study, Turkey and EU relations might be told in another words and be understood that some historical and cultural effects can determine what society thinks. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
