No. 6589 of the Harleian Collection. Unfortunately nothing is known of the original, nor does it appear to whom it at any time belonged. The copy in the Harleian Collection was written in 1606 by Nicholas Charles, Lancaster Herald, who supposed the original to be of the time of Henry III. Judging from internal evidence, it is not quite so early; yet it should seem to have been not later than about 1280. It will be seen from the copy which follows, that it consisted of about 180 coats, comprising the arms of the emperors of Germany and Constantinople, and of most of the kings of Christendom, of several French and German dukes and counts, and about an equal number of English coats, among which are those of a few earls and several barons; and intermixed with the English arms are others with French names prefixed, possibly those of persons from the English dominions in the south of France. A Roll substantially the same as this, except that it contains four additional coats, and that the names and arms are not in the same order, has been published in Leland s Collectanea, vol. ii. p. 610, Hearne...
