Forcibly, perhaps, but still opened. WE conclude that the petition is unwise and should not be presented. First, because we cannot stand the consequences of such a step, morally. Second, our infant alcoholic interests must be protected. Third and last, the very thing the petition asks for will come of itself in due time. We suggest, therefore, that the matter be left in statu quo. SINCE the publication of the diary of Thomas Jefferson, giving memoranda of the White House Wine List at that period, Mr. Richelieu Robinson s clamorousness for Jeffersonian simplicity is not surprising. The total wine bill for...
