One boys quest to save his mother will show him the hardships of loss, and the power of hope! The village of Rime has always been a quiet and peaceful place to live. However, when Benjamin Rush wakes up one morning to find his mother suffering from a terrible, unknown illness, his whole world comes crashing down. But hope isn t far away, and after he watches a star fall down from the twilight heavens, Benjamin chases after it, believing it may contain the power to save his mother. However, fate has something different in store, for once Benjamin finds the star, it leads him to Lumino the Moonstrider, an ancient being with the powers of a god and the heart of a lion. Only by working together can the two of them stand a chance of saving Benjamin s mother before it is too late.
