Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In an isolated area of Western Ireland, far from big towns or roads, and crowds, there was a huge unwanted house, that the local people from the nearby, little village of Kraithen. Said was haunted, the time, before the dawn of the Twentieth Century, apparently more than a score of years. Two strangers come to the seldom visited territory. Since the natives don t speak English, and the the outsiders can t communicate in Gaelic, there is a little problem. But it doesn t matter, the two have plenty of food and equipment for their fishing vacation. Finding a small river and the fish are biting, all is good. Sleeping in their tent, nothing to worry about, just wait for their driver to come back, in a couple of weeks. Fun in the sun, relax, get away from the hectic life of the big city. How wrong can you get! One day following the stream down, for a change, in the direction of the sea, it vanishes before them. The men look around, puzzled, finally see a mist, thick, hiding the surroundings, with many rainbows, caused by the Sun s rays, and come to a massive pit. Strange rumbling noises are heard, something s wailing below, the men have found the river, as it flows to the bottom of the chasm, a hundred feet underneath. Going further around, they arrive at an immense, gloomy, desolate, and now dead garden, of fruit trees. A short distance away, the deserted ancient, creepy house, that has almost fallen into the pit, the two brave young men go inside to investigate, everything s a wreck, dust, debris scattered everywhere, in the rooms,...
