Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 28: April, 1928 We give up this issue of the Alumni Monthly very largely to accounts of the Alumni Advisory Board and Visiting Day meetings, confident that our readers will be eager to read them. Accordingly we condense the news of the month on this page. Delinquents Attention If those of our subscribers who are delinquent appreciated the difference their delinquency made to us they would pay up, we feel confident. The business manager asks the editor to say something urgent on this subject. So here goes. For our sakes if not for your own sakes, please send us the money you owe us. The Price of the Monthly In order to improve the Alumni Monthly, and especially to provide it with more pictures, the subscription price of the magazine will be $1.50 a year, beginning with the June number. Notes of the Month Recent additions to Brown University s Lincoln Collection make it beyond dispute the finest such collection in the world. The University will close on April 5 for the Easter vacation. The University athletic offices have been moved to the new gymnasium on Elmgrove avenue. A large lacrosse squad is expected this spring because of the elimination of spring football practice. Roy E. Randall 28, University football captain last fall, will coach the University of Virginia backfield squad next fall. The Brown Aero Club s plane. Challenger, arrived late in February and the club went at once into training with it, under expert direction. Harry C. Lawton has been elected captain of the 1931 track team. His home is at Pekin, Ill., and his preparatory school is Moses...
