The Enlightened Party is a newly-established political party that represents the essence and definition of freedom, liberty, individualism, enlightenment, security, and tranquility. It s a political party that advocates encourages the teachings and practices of the law of attraction in all educational institutions, while establishing an interest-free currency, backed by gold, and opposing central banks and it s system of credit, while advocating for tuition-free-higher-education, and supporting all civil liberties for all races, ethnicity s, all genders, and people of sexual orientation. The Enlightened Party also advocates for all Americans to learn in school how to build and stabilize credit, and to open and stabilize a business. The Enlightened Party also supports a Constitutional Amendment guaranteeing free electricity and internet to all American citizens for the purpose of seeking and learning infinite enlightenment. The ultimate goal of the Enlightened Party is to influence and encourage the abolition of slavery (debt in our modern times) while destroying it s practice by banks and creditors, and allowing our great nation to be superior and powerful in advanced technology and militarily above...
