Awaken the strength in you as budding author Ravion Eregbu brings you Soldieress Chronicles, a compelling fictional saga of perseverance, courage and willpower. Telling the fateful story of a young womans heartbreaking life experiences, this book is Eregbus first published literary work. The heroine is Aubrey Dunlap, a young woman who has lived a troubled life. Growing up without her biological father, she witnessed her mothers sacrifices to make ends meet. It was a man named Walter who stood as their father, and Aubrey had always believed that he was a good stepfather to them - until the day he proved her wrong. Walter started abusing her, causing deep psychological trauma. And her sibilings departures caused her to sink into depression and turn to drugs and more sex to forget her problems. When she grew up, the abuse finally stopped - but it was an experience that was too painful to remember, yet too fresh to forget. Her exposure to drugs and sex became a vicious cycle that was hard to escape from. Searching for inner peace and genuine love, she decided to leave home and join the army. Her stay opened up new discoveries about herself, new chances of love, and eventually, a new tighter bond with her mother. As she flees from the shackles of a life enshrouded in darkness, she realizes that with her is an unbearably agonizing memory of the past that she left behind - a past that continues to haunt her. No longer willing to run from her problems and like a soldieress, prepares for the biggest battle of her life. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Hardcover.
