Clarkinc, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Rasia DeSai sat at her desk in her bedroom reading her Book yet again, going over the history of the women who came before her. They were witches, just as she was. They had a dream and a vision for the future of their kind, and she had fulfilled it. She closed the Book and sat back. She put her hand on her swollen belly and stroked it, feeling an emotion that was the closest thing to love she was capable of without the presence of her husband. She would bear the child of vampire Cyril DeSai, and this child would be the true ruler of the world for all ages to come. Rasia would live forever, yes, and she would bear the only offspring that was spawned between a true witch and a vampire. Knowing that her child is destined to rule the world, Rasia gives him the best upbringing possible, isolating him and educating him herself. With only a single friend, Isabella, the child begins to grow and learn at a frightening pace, and from a very young age he shows a taste for blood and violence that even frightens the evil Rasia. She has been told by the dark Powers that he is to be raised as they demand, and she is to do nothing to harm the child, regardless of his terrible compulsions. In the world that existed before he would have been considered a child prodigy. But Rasia knew the truth; her son was nothing less than a spawn of hell, and whatever purpose he had been born to fulfill required his superior intelligence. His name was to be Lucien, the chosen one, sent to take the world by the...
