NOTES FOR A STUDY IN CITY PLANNING IN CHAMPAIGN-URBANA (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Notes for a Study in City Planning in Champaign-Urbana To give concreteness and practicability to their work, the 1913 and 1914 classes in Civic Design were required to make a study of civic conditions in Champaign and Urbana. The results of this study, tho it was necessarily somewhat superficial, are partly embodied in the observations on the following pages. Each student had assigned to him a theme to report upon; and these reports, subsequently dis cussed in the class room, are the signed chapters that follow. In addition, the four regular students in the class of 1913 were each required to write a brief introduction to the reports; but as it would have been tiresome to repeat these, they have been thrown into a single chapter. This has been done by taking complete paragraphs from each and using nothing which was not written by the students. The introduction as given may be fairly considered, therefore, as a composite, representative of the united views of the Civic Design stu dents in the class of 1913, and hence properly signed by them all. In the case of subsequent chapters which are signed by more than one student, the students themselves combined their independent theses. It is obvious that to make an authoritative city plan for Champaign and Urbana was not the prime purpose of this study of the Twin Cities. But because it is realized that in the press of busy lives, and the in sistency of personal interests, few persons have had opportunity for dispassionate and comprehensive study of the local civic problem, the theses have been brought together in the belief that they will prove at least interesting, and...
