Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Aubree Blanchard, a homicide detective in Atlanta, Georgia for twenty years, returns to her home state of Louisiana after her daughter makes the dance team at Bayou State University. Was it her reputation alone that led to a transfer request from the Baton Rouge Police Department? She walks into her new police chief's office to come, face to face with the one man from her past that could make her weak in the knees one minute and spitting nails the next, Grayson LaSalle. He was the reason she moved to Atlanta. She plans to keep everything on a professional level, but Grayson's has different plans and making it easy for her isn't one of them. Her first week was poison - literally - her partner, her daughter and herself. Chief LaSalle receives a text naming the murders, The Molly Murders after the discovery of a third body at The Varsity Bar. Aubree and her partner Matt narrowly escape when a bomb placed under their vehicle explodes after they use the university's untraceable computers under Manning Hall. Chief LaSalle places his team, along with Aubree's daughter and her boyfriend, and team member, Levin Bourgeois computer genius younger brother in a safe house. After receiving a message sent on her iPad to meet the sender in the back parking lot of the Police Department Aubree and her partner Matt devise a plan. Chief LaSalle overhears their plan and pulls rank leaving Aubree out of the plan. After the Monday morning briefing Aubree walks out to her car in the back parking lot where she's knocked unconscious and brought to a downtown Baton Rouge warehouse. Chief...
