By Gina Danna

Gina Danna, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. England 1810 Kidnapped on a trip to London, Lady Eleanor Whitmore awakes in the hold of a ship with no memory of her past or of her perfect marriage to Lord James Haddington III, Earl of Windhaven. All she knows is that a fierce and stunningly handsome pirate is yelling about women being bad luck on a voyage. Adrift at sea in both body and mind, she finds herself falling in love with the pirate captain, whose flashing eyes and muscular frame leave her breathless. Lord James resisted the shackles by marriage until he met Eleanor. Her beauty and charms captured his heart, and now that she s disappeared, he vows he will find her or die trying. His search becomes a chase to the New World, a trip that could destroy him as Eleanor s bonds with a pirate captain tighten. Can James provoke her memory and win her love, or will the pirate steal her heart forever.
