YOU MAY TOUCH HERE PUEDES TOCAR AQUI ENGLISH AND SPANISH EDITION

Dog Ear Publishing, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. Marangelie Caceres (illustrator). 16 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 8.5in. x 0.5in. Book Summary You may touch me here is a new Bilingual book for children of all ages, which demonstrates appropriate touch and trains children to reject inappropriate touch from others. The children illustrated are Latino, Black, Asian, European, Native American, and some with special needs. Most children need to see themselves portrayed in this book, so that they can relate and remember the message. This book is a necessary tool in teaching safety and child abuse prevention to our youngsters. Authors Biography Idilian Casanueva is an elementary school teacher who has worked with students of all ages, and continues to enjoy teaching students with special needs and their families. Idilian has received training as a Law Guardian, and has worked as a Public Social Worker Aide visiting children of all socio-economic backgrounds. Idilian understands the pain of children who have been inappropriately touched and is passionate about making children advocates for themselves from a very early age. She is inspired by her own story to give a voice to those deemed voiceless. Idilian is a member of the National Association to Protect Children and the Association of American Educators. She lives with her family in Northern Virginia.
