

Art Book Flora: Bones of Pressed Flowers (Hardback)

By Asuka Tada

Asuka Shinsha Co., Ltd., Japan, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Bilingual. Language: English . Brand New Book. Kneecaps made from sunflowers, ribs from green leaves, and arched rows of pink roses making a shape of a skull This stunning collection presents the unique images of skeletons made from pressed flowers. The author, Tada felt bones were the essence of a woman and tried to reproduce them with flowers - which have been often associated with women. This figure skeleton was first used for an ad campaign for funeral parlor, and Tada won an award. She self-published 500 copies of this collection by crowdfunding, which sold out very quickly and this was one of the most sought-after titles in art bookstores.
