iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .During one of the most challenging times of author Rockel Etienne s life, she was in so much anguish that she felt as though she could not breathe. In her quiet time, she was compelled to express her pain, purpose, and passion through the written word. Without the therapy of writing, Etienne felt she would not recover. She had a choice to make: write and heal, or stay in pain and become bitter. She chose to write. If you have journeyed from pain to purpose, or have a desire to do so, then Diamond Cut is for you. This intriguing self-help guide compares the fine art of diamond cutting to the rebirth of a human being. Diamonds change immensely from discovery to brilliancy, and we transition through similar processes in our lives. We also endure emotional, social, and psychological stages of change. These seasons of change transform our existence and shape our inner and outer being. Through the insights in Diamond Cut, you ll have the opportunity to grow, develop, and shine in your life.
