

A French Opportunity (Paperback)

By Debbie Ambrous

French Opportunity, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Elizabeth Carlisle (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Travel dreams stir a young girl, who sways on a front porch swing in the unique town of Opp, Alabama, to escape to A French Opportunity. Aboard the front porch swing conducted as an imaginary train, she visits faraway places. She leaves her hometown with Jim, her young, funny as all git-out husband, riding in a 1957 Chevy, not her romantic train. Children max out her checkbook, breast cancer causes an ugly scene, and there s always more and more work to finish; yet somehow she finds her way to her true love - France. She writes passionately of this love, sounding like Paula Deen longing to be Catherine Deneuve, while never forgetting Opp, a town with front porch swings, not Eiffel Towers! France s picturesque landscape and villages are shared from the viewpoint of a soft-spoken lady who says, Forget the grits and taste the wild mushrooms, and enters with a Bonjour ya ll wearing a big smile under her floppy-brimmed chapeau. Debbie s storytelling is sprinkled with humor plus a few tears and lined with her...
