Angelo George Dagues (born August 22, 1934, at Newburyport, Massachusetts) is a retired American professional baseball player. An outfielder, Dagues was signed to a bonus contract by the Baltimore Orioles of Major League Baseball on September 11, 1955 - and made his Major League debut later that day when he started as the Orioles left fielder in the second game of a doubleheader against the Kansas City Athletics at Memorial Stadium. Dagues would go on to appear in seven more games during the 1955 season, his only year in the big leagues.
