UP DECATUR: POEMS (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is not the quiet tap of civilized literature; this is the loud, raw truth of life. Up Decatur is the gush to keep faith, hope and stay alive. It is birthed in tribute to the dead, family, friends and for everyday struggle: FREEDOM. The words express experiences of life and of being of New Orleans - the rhyme, rhythm, neighborhoods, senses and people that make the city unique, eccentric and always keeping its roux in your blood. New Orleans - the goddess, queen, mother - is Valentine s first love. She is tethered by her children. New Orleans is anchored by her love for family. With family she triumphs and remains grounded. Love for friends, lovers, others is there because LOVE never fails. To live in New Orleans is to be defined by water - mystical, mythical or mundane. Valentine splashes water, swirls tempests. You definitely cannot live in New Orleans if there are no special colors, days or seasons and days are not ordinary. You will remember the colors and the palettes Valentine portrays in Jazz. New Orleans also has its treats - chocolate drops and marshmallow creme, milk chocolate! The RESISTANCE, MOVEMENT of our day is evident in Up Decatur. Valentine affirms that we are a country led by the unresident with a privileged delusion. The collective and bullhorn call to raise the FLAG for FREEDOM from 9/11 should not be confused with the divisive respect for the flag and the national anthem stand that is tweeted as early morning sirens - just noise. Valentine continues to raise the alarm for code black in order to pay attention, be vigilant and stay alive. To answer her own question what...
